PRESS TRUST OF INDIA
Mumbai, January 7

THE RBI ON Thursday asked banks to align their internal audit function with international best practices, like those issued by the Basel Committee on Banking Supervision (BCBS).

As per a 2002 guidance note, banks are required to put in place a risk-based internal audit (RBIA) system as part of their internal control framework that relies on a well-defined policy for internal audit, functional independence with sufficient standing and authority within the bank. RBI said while the guidance note lays out the basic approach for RBIA functions, banks are expected to re-orient their approach, in line with the evolving best practices, as a part of their overall Governance and Internal Control framework.

"Banks are encouraged to adopt the International Internal Audit standards, like those issued by the BCBS and the Institute of Internal Auditors (IIA)," it said in a circular.

RBI said banks are expected to re-orient their approach, in line with the evolving best practices, as a part of their overall Governance and Internal Control framework

To bring uniformity in approach followed by the banks, RBI has advised them certain norms on 'authority, stature and independence', 'competence', 'staff rotation', 'tenor for appointment of head of internal audit', 'reporting line' and 'remuneration'.

RBI further said the internal audit function should not be outsourced. However, where required, experts, including former employees, could be hired on contractual basis subject to the Audit Committee of the Board of Directors being assured that such expertise does not exist within the audit function of the bank, it said.

It has also said banks must ensure and demonstrate through proper documentation that their RBIA framework captures all the significant criteria/principles suited for their organisational structure, the business model and the risks.

Telcos can get airwaves for less than half the price paid earlier

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA
New Delhi, January 7

TELECOM OPERATORS CAN get spectrum in the 900 megahertz band, used for 4G services, in the upcoming auction for less than half the price paid for several circles in previous auctions, as per the base prices declared by the Department of Telecom.

While most of the base prices are based on the recommendations of the Telecom Regulatory Authority of India (Trai), the Department of Telecom (DoT) has made some changes in the 700 megahertz and 1800 Mhz bands in select circles for the auctions scheduled to start from March 1.

This round of auction will be held for 2,251.25 megahertz (MHz) spectrum in seven frequency bands — 700 Mhz, 800 Mhz, 900 Mhz, 1,800 Mhz, 2,100 Mhz, 2,300 Mhz and 2,500 Mhz — at a cumulative base price of ₹3.92 lakh crore recommended by Trai.

The government has kept frequency bands of 3,300-3,600 MHz, that can be used for 5G services, out of the upcoming auction. These frequencies were part of Trai recommendations for the auction.

The reserve price in the 900 Mhz bands frequencies in Assam, Karnataka and North East have been reduced by more than 50% compared to the amount bidders paid in the spectrum auctions held in 2015.

The DoT has lowered the base price in the 900 Mhz band in 11 circles in the range of 27 to 57% compared to the market discovered price in auctions that were conducted in 2014 and 2015. The base price of 900 Mhz band spectrum in Delhi has been lowered by around 28% to ₹585 crore from ₹811.62 crore per Mhz that was paid by Bharti Airtel, Vodafone and Idea in 2014.

The base price for 900 Mhz band in Karnataka circle has come down to ₹238 crore per Mhz from ₹557.5 crore paid by operators in the March 2015

REFERRING TO NEWS reports quoting the apex court as a "source" about complaints against judges, and possibility of action by Chief Justice SA Bobde against them, the Supreme Court on Thursday said it never releases information about confidential procedure.

The official statement by the apex court follows recent reports quoting Supreme Court sources, on action taken by the CJI on a complaint by Andhra Pradesh Chief Minister Y Jagan Mohan Reddy against judges of the higher judiciary.

"Media has recently been reporting about complaints making insinuations against members of the higher judiciary, and the action likely to be taken by the Chief Justice of India," said the apex court.

The statement said the use of the apex court as the source to lend credibility to such news reports and said the "in-house procedures" to deal with complaints against judges of higher judiciary was wholly confidential in nature and it never releases such an information.
